

Assumptions:

1. Team input text files will always maintain the order of player position. That is, the order will always be: Forwards, Midfielders, Defenders and Reserve.
2. Only players involved in an event can get injured/reported during that specific event. That is, only one of two players involved in the event can get injured/reported.
3. Players can get injured or reported only during Turnovers and Passes.